275 the twin pillars in freemasonic buildings and churches represent the face of the building just like Solomons Temple

1050 the cross is seen as a duality of the balance of opposites of the christ within us

1130 freemasons believe we are in a dream that we’re gods inside. This is found in nursey rhymes such as life is but a dream

1325 man is viewed as moon and sun of human and divine, when you go to their church you are worshipping yourself. Interesting

1437the ankh stands for eternal life, same as the duality of the cross symbol

3847 the Vikings established settlements in Canada hundreds of years before Christopher Columbus, they believe in forces of nature and a godself